

Alumni Gift Campaign Kicks Off Sept. 8

Saint Joseph's Alumni Association Board of Directors has approved a well-organized plan for alumni participation in the capital gifts campaign, to begin Sept. 8 with a kickoff dinner on campus.

The approval came during the Board's recent annual summer meeting on campus.

As explained by Assistant Alumni Director John Petrila, "we have sought to decentralize the campaign as much as possible, so that workers may concentrate in their home areas, working with people they are familiar with. Steering committees will be formed to direct the campaign in each area."

The Alumni Board and area campaign leaders will attend the kickoff dinner, then meetings will be held in each campaign area for workers. Petrila reports that campaign organizations are established in 16 areas: Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, North Chicago, Southwest Chicago, Southwest Indiana, Northwest Indiana, Michiana (South Bend-Benton Harbor), Toledo, Fostoria-Tiffin (Ohio), Lima (Ohio), Cleveland, Dayton, Akron-Youngstown-Canton - Massillon, Dallas - Fort Worth, Atlanta and Michigan City.

In addition, organizations are being planned in Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Columbus.

Petrila proposed that Homecoming '73 be used to assist in the campaign. The Board discussed the possibility of making a centrally located display for Homecoming day Oct. 13 where architectural drawings of proposed buildings could be shown, along with information about future plans of Saint Joseph's.

Looking ahead to the start of the alumni capital gifts drive, Petrila notes that 3800 graduates form the base of the campaign. Of these, the majority are located in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio.

Do you notice the missing reflection in the pond? The Alumni Capital Gifts Campaign kicks off Sept. 8 and will concentrate in replacing 10,000 square feet of the Administration Building, which was destroyed by fire, Feb. 4.

In Memoriam

Saint Joseph's College family recently suffered the loss of two of its most dedicated members, Mr. Lee J. Gary and Mrs. Blanche Halleck.

Mr. Lee J. Gary, 75, a member of Saint Joseph's Board of Trustees since 1963 and Board of Directors of Saint Joseph's College Corporation since 1972, died of an apparent heart attack Sunday, Aug. 5, while visiting in St. Louis, Mo.

Senior member of the law firm of Gary, Juettner, Pigott & Cullinan, Chicago, Mr. Gary was very active in all matters of governance here at Saint Joseph's. Specifically, he drafted the By-Laws of the Board of Trustees in 1969 to bring them up to date, reflecting the delegation of governing authority in the management of the Rensselaer campus.

As an officer of the Arthur J.

Schmitt Foundation, Mr. Gary was very influential in obtaining annual grants to support the higher education of members of Saint Joseph's College faculty; as much as $17,000 a year.

Also, as an interested member of the Catholic laity, he has annually made generous donations to the college.

At the 1969 commencement exercises, Saint Joseph's recognized and thanked Mr. Gary for "learned and wise counsel and persistent dedication to the cause of Catholic higher education," by conferral of the Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa.

At the time of death, Mr. Gary was a trustee of DePaul University, a trustee and director of Saint Joseph's, a director of Catholic Charities, and president of the philanthropic Arthur J. Schmitt Foundation. He was (Continued on Page Three)

Trustees Fill Board Vacancies; Mascotte, O'Connor Elected

Two Fort Wayne men have been elected to Saint Joseph's Board of Trustees, it has been announced by college President Father Charles Banet, himself a native of Fort Wayne. They are:

John P. Mascotte, Vice-President of Lincoln National Corporation in Fort Wayne. He is a 1961 graduate of Saint Joseph's.

Dalton A. O'Connor, Vice-President for Merchandising at the Magnavox Company, Inc., in Fort Wayne.

Mascotte and his wife, Sarah, reside at 4138 South Harrison, Fort Wayne. They have four children: Leo, 6; Mark, 4; Mathew, 4 and Mary Marcella, 4 months. He earned a bachelor of science degree in accounting from Saint Joseph's in June, 1961, and became a Fellow of the college in 1969.

O'Connor and his wife, Anne, reside at 1212 Westover Road,

Fort Wayne. They have four children: Ashley, 19; Tony Jr., 17; Richard, 15 and Michael, 13. O'Connor's father, Richard, served as one of the first members of the college Lay Board. He is now a trustee emeritus.

A third Fort Wayne member of Saint Joseph's Board of Trustees is Frank Gallucci, Vice-President of Personnel Relations at Essex Wire in Fort Wayne. He resides at 10434 Covington Road, Fort Wayne.

Father Banet explains "these appointments bring the Board to a full complement of 35 members, all lay, who exercise full governing authority over the college."

Alumni Will Relive Feb. 4 Fire Via Displays At Homecoming

While fun and nostalgia have always reigned over homecomings here at Saint Joe, all indications are that Homecoming '73, Saturday, Oct. 13, will be the largest and most meaningful in the school's history.

In addition to the large turnout expected for the reunion of the classes of '43, '53, '58, '63 and '68, this year's homecoming will provide the first opportunity for alumni to renew acquaintances and reflect on the absence of the Administration Building since its destruction by fire, Feb. 4.

Alumni will be given the chance to actually relive the fire and its immediate aftermath as students, faculty and administrators experienced it, through an audio-video presentation. Also, college administrators will be available to discuss college redevelopment plans, which have thus far been successfully supported by fund raising efforts of the Rensselaer community, alumni, friends of the college and various corporate and philanthropic foundations.

A tent will be set up where the Administration Building once stood, in which mementoes of the building, including the contents of the corner stone, and pictures will be displayed. These items will be shown prior to and following the football game.

Excitement pervades Collegeville beginning at 11 a.m., Saturday, when the Sixth Annual SJC Homecoming Parade proceeds through downtown Rensselaer, south on College Ave., to campus.

At 1:30 p.m., the 1973 Saint Joe Pumas will seek revenge against the Evansville Aces in what should prove to be an important, power-packed Indiana Collegiate Conference contest. The Aces defeated the Pumas last year, 43-34.

Preceding a buffet dinner at 4:45 p.m. in the Halleck Center Ballroom, there will be a Happy Hour following the game in the west end of the Fieldhouse, located south of the football field.

Capping the day will be the Alumni Dance which will begin at 9 p.m. in Halleck Center Cafeteria.

Four Honored At Commencement

MR. G. RICHARD SCHREIBER
Doctor of Humane Letters

Saint Joseph's College conferred three honorary degrees and presented the Edwin G. Kaiser Award Sunday, June 17, during the school's 78th annual commencement exercises in Alumni Fieldhouse.

The recipients of the honorary degrees were:

Mr. G. Richard Schreiber, Chairman of Saint Joseph's Board of Trustees and President of the National Automatic Merchandising Association, headquartered in Chicago. A 1943 graduate of Saint Joseph's, he received a Doctor of Humane Letter degree, honoris causa. Schreiber also delivered the commencement address to approximately 310 graduates.

Mr. Benno M. Scheidler, a long-time benefactor of Saint Joseph's College and brother of Fr. Albin Scheidler, who served for many years as a priest at Collegeville. Scheidler received a Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa.

Dr. James W. Scholl, M.D., one of the outstanding specialists in the State of Michigan in podiatry. A 1951 graduate of Saint Joseph's, Dr. Scholl received a Doctor of Laws degree, honoris causa. Dr. Scholl, his wife, and their five children are all Fellows of the College.

Fr. Ernest W. Ranly, C.P.P.S., associate professor of philosophy at Saint Joseph's, was presented the Edwin G. Kaiser Award for professorial excellence. The award is named after professor emeritus of theology Fr. Edwin G. Kaiser.

Gift Campaign... (Continued from Page One)

the alumni capital gifts campaign has been genuine," Petrila says. "Currently, between 250 and 275 alumni have volunteered their efforts as campaign workers, and that figure will continue to rise as we seek additional workers."

The goal of the drive will be $300,000, intended to replace 10,000 square feet of space lost in the Feb. 4 Administration Building fire.

"I think this goal is realistic," Petrila says, "but to reach this goal, it will take concentrated and detailed effort from all those concerned with the drive. The Neighbor Fund provides a concrete example of what concerted effort can accomplish in a capital gifts drive."

Alumni spearheading the drives in the various areas include:

He and his wife, Anne Marie, have three children: Andrea, 3; Vincent, one and a half and Louis, 2 months.

WALSH earned a bachelor of science degree in accounting at Saint Joseph's. He has been employed at Coopers & Lybrand since his graduation. He is a member of the American Institute and Illinois Society of Certified Public Accountants, an associate member of Chicago Financial Executives, and a member of the Illinois Society Committee on Business Opportunity.

His wife, Laurel, is a graduate of Northwestern University and a practicing dental hygienist.

SJC Enrollment Up

While most schools are reporting a decrease in enrollment for the Fall, Saint Joseph's will enjoy a 15 percent increase over last year's enrollment or 49 new students, bringing a total of 377 new students compared with 328 last year.

Total applications were up over 1972 by 21 percent, from 732 to 885.

While the quantity of the freshman class is up, quality has not decreased, as those students with a 3.0 or better grade point average has increased over the Class of '72 by 51 percent.

Losses Plague Puma Defense

For the first time in what seems like a decade, Saint Joseph's is working to patch up graduation gaps on defense while the offense boasts most of the veteran punch. Included among 18 lettermen lost are a group of three-year starters who made SJC's defense the strongest in the Indiana Collegiate Conference for the past three years.

An overview of the Pumas for 1973 shows a wealth of backfield talent, both offensively and defensively, but a relative shortage of proven line talent in both areas. Compounding the line problems is the fact that the trenchmen aren't as big as last year, yet coach Bill Jennings has good reason for optimism since these problem areas are outweighed by 21 returning lettermen and the completion of a successful spring practice session.

Offensively, the Pumas should present a potent attack, characterized by striking power both in the air and on the ground. Bill Reagan is the field general, owning 11 TD passes and 943 aerial yards in '72. Willard Warwick and Bob Dragich back him up.

Running backs Carlos Phillips and Jim Taylor could be the finest tandem SJC has fielded in many years. Phillips (536 yards, 5.5 rushing average in '72) is a super breakaway threat and a polished receiver, while Taylor (407 yards, 3.9 average) has power to burn. Tim Shindel-decker and Bob Dexter are promising newcomers, while Bill Murphy enjoyed a fine spring at flanker.

Jim Owens (11 catches, 298 yards, 4 TD's) and Joe Pallotta (14 catches, 187 yards, one TD) are constantly improving as receivers; watch for Roger Brengener and Jim Lauraitis to push them for starting jobs. Lettermen Greg Perkins (center), Fred Mariani (guard) and Greg Diem (tackle) spark the offensive line, which also features Mike Noel, Al Waznis, Terry Dane, Jim DeLach, Chuck Endres, Barry Omahen and Jim Vanhorn as rapidly improving blockers.

The defense underwent extensive experimentation during spring drills and came out with a rush line of Kevin McGuire and Jack Martin (ends), Mike Beatty and Dennis Donlan (tackles) and All-IOC Kedric Beard (middle guard). Walt Prochno, Tyrone Tyson and Joe Kearns lend backup strength here.

Linebacking is inexperienced, yet appears strong with Nick Bazan, John Kilmartin and Bruce Wright heading the corps, while the secondary is strong, talented and experienced with Nick Lorenzini, Larry Lesniak, Jesse Chick, Willie Turner and Dick Briede all boasting monograms.

Neighbor Day Caps Successful $185,000 Community Fund Drive

June 16 was Good Neighbor Day in Rensselaer, Ind., a chance for all area residents to come to town, have fun, meet people and be thanked by the Neighbor Fund for their tremendous support of the area fund drive in trying to help Saint Joseph's College recover from the Feb. 4 Administration Building fire.

Untold number of hours went into the planning and execution of this area-wide fund-raising program, which thus far has netted the college over $185,000.

"When we started this Neighbor Fund, we set no specific goal because we honestly didn't know how much support Saint Joseph's could be expected to receive from the Rensselaer area," explains Dr. E. R. Beaver, one of three honorary chairmen of the drive.

From the overwhelming success of this community effort, it has become obvious to college administrators that endless hours and careful planning are essential to every future fund-raising endeavor.

While the area-wide endeavor was climaxed by Neighbor Day, the college is still benefitting from individual contributions.

Total proceeds from Neighbor Day amounted to $8,000 and in mid-August, the Neighbor Fund sponsored a Neighbor Fund Pro-Am golf tournament which netted another $6,000 for the college.

O'Reilly Named Alumni Merit Winner

John W. O'Reilly '65, a member of the ABC Television Emmy Award winning newscasting team, was named recipient of the Alumni Award of Merit for relentless dedication to his alma mater.

O'Reilly is Sports Director of KGO-TV (Channel Seven) in San Francisco, the station honored with an Emmy Award in May by the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for excellence in news coverage. KGO-TV also was honored by the Associated Press for top news coverage among all California television stations.

Since becoming Sports Director of KGO-TV in May of 1970, O'Reilly has established himself as a vital news personality in the Bay area.

O'Reilly has injected a unique flavor into his broadcasts, winning countless viewers for KGO-TV. His "Fifth Quarter" show following ABC's Monday night NFL football telecasts has become the highest rated show in the San Francisco area.

O'Reilly also has been acclaimed for his feature on the life of San Francisco 49er quarterback John Brodie and several interviews with world heavyweight champion George Foreman. In addition to his expertise on the screen, O'Reilly has assisted many charitable and civic organizations, including the March of Dimes and drives to combat muscular dystrophy and multiple sclerosis. "You always get more than you give in helping these causes," he says, "because of the wonderful feeling you get from helping other people."

His desire to help others, demonstrated in part by his dedication to his alma mater, forms a basis for his receipt of the Alumni Award of Merit.

O'Reilly joined with Oakland Athletics' owner Charlie O. Finley in 1965 to establish Saint Joseph's senior class gift insurance program, an increasingly successful idea continued each year with graduating classes. Finley, himself an insurance expert as well as one of America's leading sportsmen, helped O'Reilly plan and start the insurance program.

Finley recognized the genius of O'Reilly and hired him in 1969 as Director of Promotion and Advertising for the Athletics baseball team. He moved across the Bay to KGO-TV just over three years ago, where he continues to write a record of brilliant professionalism.

He and his wife Rianne, have one daughter, Kathy.

Academy Reunion Brings Back 20 To Saint Joseph's Campus

Saint Joseph's welcomed home 20 of its Academy alumni to a reunion June 30, most of whom visited the campus for the first time since the destruction of the Administration Building.

Some of the Alumni arrived Friday and enjoyed an informal get-together that evening. Saturday morning, some of the alumni got in a game of golf while others walked around the campus reflecting on old times and viewing the college's progress.

At noon, Fr. Sante Reale, alumni director, reports that the alumni put together a "swinging party" which was followed by a cocktail party and dinner. Ed McElroy '43 was master of ceremonies during which each alumnus gave a short talk reminiscing about the past and telling of occupations and family.

After dinner, the alumni met in Justin second floor lounge where they looked through old yearbooks, casting them back into 'the good ole days at Saint Joseph's Academy.'

A special Mass was celebrated Sunday for the Academy group which featured a program including students of Fr. Heimans' Graduate School of Liturgical Music. "The beautiful Mass was especially appreciated by our alumni," says Fr. Reale.

The weekend reunion was concluded with a picnic Sunday afternoon.

Since the reunion, George Sindelar '13, one of the Academy alumni who revisited the campus, died after receiving communion at Mass back home in his church. He was an organist for his church.

Other Academy alumni who returned for the reunion were: Walter J. Barth, M.D. '13, Sal Corso '42, Walter Corvington '48, James W. Dobe '44, Gene Hartlage '47, John R. Kinney '38, Gaynard L. Hardebeck '48, Dean Hayden '46, Jack Hemmert '41, Lawrence Jacobs '17, Bob Meiners '43, John F. Rice, '46, John Scheidler '47, James R. Thieme '47, John F. Thieme '46, Donald J. Tonner '42, George Tonner '43 and Thomas Weis '46.
